

TIMETABLE

Wednesday 9 May: Annual SWIG pre-conference drinks in The Roost, Main Street, Maynooth (from 6:30pm)

Thursday 10 May: Registration begins at 10:30 in the Iontas Foyer. Coffee/tea will be available

Time/Room	SE128	SE129	SE130	S131	SE132	SE230
11:15am-12:45pm	A1. Geography, gender and science	A2. Art and Geography 1: Embodied Geographies of the Nation I	A3. Geographies of elections: culture, place and politics	A4. Regional climates	A5. Legalities and liveabilities: making sense of the implementation of laws/policies and lived experiences of LGBTIQ/sexual and gender non conforming people	A6. 50 questions for Irish Geography research to help secure the Earth as our Home - workshop discussion
12:45-2pm	Lunch – Phoenix Restaurant SWIG AGM – SE128
2-3:30pm	B1. Geography and the Irish statistical system	B2. Art and Geography 2: Embodied Geographies of the Nation II	B3. Compensatory homemaking in times of crisis and 'crisis-ordinary' 1	B4. Historical climatology: data rescue, documentary evidence, management, quality assurance and reconstruction	B5. Evolving geographies, evolving methodologies
	B6. Poster session – Iontas Foyer
	B7. Local approaches to enhance and appreciate biodiversity: a walk and talk session around our Green Campus. Meet: Iontas Foyer
3:30-4pm	Coffee – Iontas Foyer
4-5:30pm	C1. Creating spaces for cooperation: crossing borders and boundaries before and after Brexit	C2. Art and Geography 3: The Earth as our Home	C3. Compensatory homemaking in times of crisis and 'crisis-ordinary' 2	C4. Environmental sensitivity	C5. New social geographies	C6. GSI Doctoral Research Award
5:45-6:45pm	Keynote: Ayona Datta Iontas Lecture Theatre
6:45pm-XXX	Opening Reception – Iontas Foyer
Later	Post-reception reception for Postgraduate and Early Career Researchers Network (PECN) – Roost pub

Friday 11 May

Time/Room	SE128	SE129	SE130	S131	SE132	SE230
9-10:30am	D1. Women in Geography Roundtable	D2. Art and Geography 4: Workshop and Discussion. Fostering Art for Sustainability in Ireland	D3. FOSS4G in research and teaching 1	D4. New directions in Irish historical geographies 1	D5. Perspectives on regional and urban planning 1: 50 years after Buchanan – regional planning in Ireland	D6. Environment, biodiversity and risk
10:30-11am	Coffee – Arts Building Concourse
11am-12:30pm	E1. Meta-narrating the city: circulating urban spatial stories from above and below 1	E2. Art and Geography 5: Dance and Geography	E3. FOSS4G in research and teaching 2	E4. New directions in Irish historical geographies 2	E5. Perspectives on regional and urban planning 2: Metropolitan governance and government	E6. Geographies of (non-) reproduction 1
12:30-1:30pm	Lunch – Phoenix Restaurant PECN AGM – SE128; Virtual Fieldtrip of Dublin City (Iontas Building)
1:30-3pm	F1. Meta-narrating the city: circulating urban spatial stories from above and below 2	F2. Art and Geography 6: Data Art Workshop. Building City Dashboards with Artists' Collaboration	F3. GSI Book Awards Session	F4. Energy and everyday life: Exploring the lived experience of energy systems change 1	F5. Perspectives on regional and urban planning 3: 50 years after Myles Wright – urban planning in Ireland	F6. Geographies of (non-) reproduction 2
3-3:30pm	Coffee – Arts Building Concourse
3:30-5pm	G1. Meta-narrating the city: circulating urban spatial stories from above and below 3	G2. Anne Buttimer and the Practice of Geography	G3. Earth Observation: Applications in environmental mapping and monitoring	G4. Energy and everyday life: Exploring the lived experience of energy systems change 2	G5: Critical and creative geographies of development (Starts 3:15)	G6. Lightning talk challenge - snapshots in geographical research
5:15-6:15pm	Keynote: Rob Wilby Arts Lecture Theatre
7:00-9:30pm	Conference Dinner – Pugin Hall

Saturday 12 May

Time/Room	SE128	SE129	SE130	SE131	SE132	SE014
9:30-11am	H1. Climate modeling & analysis: minimizing our impact on Earth as our home	H2. Between Nature and Culture, Land and Sea: Spatial Practices at the Coast 1	H3. Confronting the commodification of housing 1	H4. Rural geographies 1: Rurality as choice: myth or reality?	H5. Making space for publics: a challenge for cities on the path to being smart 1
11-11:30am	Coffee – Iontas Foyer
11:30am-1pm	J1. Placing geography beyond the campus	J2. Between Nature and Culture, Land and Sea: Spatial Practices at the Coast 2	J3. Confronting the commodification of housing 2	J4. Rural geographies 2: Contemporary trends in the social economy sector	J5. Making space for publics: a challenge for cities on the path to being smart 2	J6. CPD workshop: what would a geography podcast series look like
1-2pm	Keynote: Manuel Aalbers Iontas Lecture Theatre
2pm	Lunch – Iontas Foyer GSI AGM – Iontas Lecture Theatre
2:30pm	Fieldtrip – Meet in Iontas Foyer					